To whom it may concern:

Hi-Boom Erecting, Inc. is a construction company located in Black River Falls, Wisconsin. We employ exclusively from the ironworker union halls in Minnesota and Wisconsin and encourage all interested minorities and women to contact the ironworker union hall nearest them regarding employment opportunities in the ironworker trade.

We strongly encourage individuals in your organization/school that are interested in work as an ironworker to review the enclosed information detailing the work performed. If they have any interest in working as an ironworker we ask that they contact the ironworker local nearest them for further information, possible employment qualifications and the application process. The unions have apprenticeship programs and typically offer entrance into their programs in December, January, and February. Specific timing can be obtained directly from the union.

If any individual of your organization/school does seek entrance into the apprenticeship programs, we ask that you contact us with their name and the union they are working with. If we have employment needs at that time, we would be very interested in employing them.
